Professional Team Building

January, 2007

WHY TEAM BUILDING, WHEN THERE IS SO MUCH TO DO AT WORK ...

"A boat doesn't go forward if each one is rowing their own way."

Swahili Proverb

"No one can whistle a symphony. It takes an orchestra to play it."

H. E. Luccock

An increasing phenomenon, the Team Building sessions became an important part of the everyday professional life.

More than just a simple trend or "going out for a drink", the team building sessions started to be used as efficient ways of training, development, and human resources retention.

A FEW GOOD REASONS ...

- Team spirit reinforcement and employee motivation
- Communication improvement
- Development of trust between colleagues
- Detect and solve tensions or problems
- Stimulation of imagination and creativity
- Positive attitude and change management
- Solving the everyday professional challenges

ANOTHER WAY TO COMMUNICATE

Team Building events place us in a different context, out of the normal working environment, where hierarchies are dissolved and each behaves ... naturally. Not only do we act differently, but also we have the freedom to express openly and directly.

Team Building experiences reveal the real personality of each other and, surprisingly, we can find that the "husky" manager X is really a warm person, with a great sense of humor. And maybe, next week, when we will meet on the corridors, a spontaneously smile will appear ...
