TREASURE HUNT IN SIGHISOARA FORTRESS

History or Legend? Myth or Reality?

In 1408, Sigismund de Luxembourg, Emperor of Germany, King of Hungary and Boemia, founded a knights order. The German name of the order was "Drachenorden" and the initially scope was to provide protection to the royal family. Vlad Dracul was a member of the order and this is also the origin for the name "Dracula", carried further on by his son, Vlad Tepes.

Another noteworthy member of "Drachenorden" was the Hungarian Countess Elisabeth Bathory, who transformed his castle from Cetnie into a slaughter-house, killing young girls for their innocent blood, used in satanic ceremonies. Some of her crimes were unjustly attributed to Count Dracula.

Treasure Hunt

Sometimes, the fast rhythm of the daily activities makes us miss the beauty of the special places we pass by. One of those is Sighisoara Citadel, so well conserved that walking on the narrow and sloped streets you expect each moment to meet armored knights from other times.

We propose you a 4 hours journey, back in time, in the Sighisoara Fortress. In a tight competition and fighting against time, the teams will visit the entire citadel, solving riddles from the ancient history of the city …
